VOL. XXXVI — SONOMA, SONOMA COUNTY, CAL., SEPTEMBER, 19 1914. — NO. 10

Recordings of Personal Impressions and Happenings.

Among Which Are, Concert and Dance, Orphan's Home Benefit, Congregational Choir Affair, Elks' Grand Ball and Agricultural Club Benefit

With the lull in politics, the peaceful interim following the primaries, when the gladiators are permitted to retire from the arena to gather renewed energy and courage for the great battle of ballots to be waged in November, thought and energy has been turned in other directions, and social activities are to be resumed, many delightfully pleasurable events being in course of arrangement.

The first affair on the tapis is a

Concert and Dance—

Wednesday evening of next week, Sept. 23d—the initial concert of a series, and is to take place at Union Hall, under the auspices of the Sonoma branch of the Young Peoples' Socialist League, which has been organized by E. G. Perkins of Fetters' Springs

This branch League is not for the promotion of Socialist policies in a political way, but is, instead, purely a musical organization, the object of which is to stimulate and increase interest in a musical way. The membership of the League is to comprise families, with dues fixed at twenty-five cents per month for each family—the League desiring to tax its members only a sufficient amount to meet incurrent expenses incidental upon the arranging of social affairs.

The new organization will undoubtedly prosper, as it will fill a long-felt want, providing entertainment and promoting general sociability of the most desirable nature, with but slight expense.

Next Wednesday night's is the first of these gatherings, and a cordial invitation is extended the general public to attend, and enjoy the hospitality provided by the League and the splendid program to be presented.

Xylophone, violin, piano and vocal solos will be rendered, in addition to ensemble playing of violin, cornet, piano and drums.

After the concert, dancing will be inaugurated and continue until midnight.

Orpaans' Home Benefit—

Readers of the Index-Tribune, bear well in mind the date named for the benefit entertainment and dance, to be given by Verdant Rebekah Lodge for the benefit of the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home.

Thursday night of next week is the evening on which the Rebekahs ask the friends of orphan children to assist in securing the comfort of the little ones dependent upon the world at large for home and tenderness.

The admission fee to be charged thiss occasion is but twenty-five cents, including refreshments.

As a matter of fact an evening devoted to music and dancing, and the pleasure of meeting friends in social converse, is certainly worth twenty-five cents, and all who attend this function would willingly contribute a larger sum to help a cause so worthy.

It is to be hoped that Odd Fellows' Hall will be thronged by an appreciative and sympathizing audience, who will refrain from dining before going, so that the ladies will find it necessary to increase the staff serving refreshments.

A Plantation Scene—

A typical, fascinating Southern representation, with a chivalrous, courtly, "Kentucky Colonel," the grande dames, the belles and beaux, the old cullu'd mammy and her starry-eyed picaninnies, and the real, mischievous Topsy—"de gal dat ne'er was born," all those irresistable and charming characters from out the misty past, which have made Southern song and story appeal to the heart throughout the ages, has been chosen by the choir of the Congregational Church as a mode of entertaining their friends.

This affair is to take place within the next fortnight, at the Church, and the announcement of the date of this evening of novel entertainment is awaited with pleasurable anticipation.

To Promote Back-to-the-Farm Movement—

The month of October will be a record of several brilliant functions, and Society will be in the midst of exciting gayety throughout the weeks of the favorite season. From its first to its last week, dates have already been named for events of interest to all circles. On the first Friday night is to take place an entertainment given under the joint auspices of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club and the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce, the proceeds of which are to finance the trips planned as prizes for the Tomato Growing Contest, entered into by the boy members of the Agricultural Club.

My readers have had in detail, from time to time all the facts concerning this Agricultural Club, organized in the Sonoma Valley Union High School by Principal M. H. Rowell, in order to promote this "back-to-the-farm movement," and to foster the endeavor to conduct farming on a scientific basis, which has a tendency to insure greater profits and, therefore, increase the desire of the youth of today to remain on the farm and till the soil, rather than invade the over-crowded professions. With a knowledge of what the movement means to the rural districts, the men and women who have formed organizations, whose objective point is the promotion of all that pertains to the advancement of town and valley, have signified their intention of co-operating with the local high school and help to make this Agricultural Club a big and permanent institution.

The first prize, you understand, is a trip to Washington, D. C., with a visit to the California University Farm, at Davis, as subordinate prizes. It is to raise money to defray the expenses of these trips that an entertainment is to be given early next month, and I'm very sure the undertaking will be liberally patronized and otherwise assisted.

For the Public Library—

Another October event, which will, beyond a doubt, meet with cordial response from residents of town and valley, is the planned-for entertainment for the Library, on a date yet to be named.

Something unusually good in the dramatic line is to be presented under the capable direction of A. L. Wells, who is no stranger to the amusement-loving public of Sonoma. Mr. Wells has been of valuable assistance in the past in arranging and directing local entertainments—an art in which he is widely experienced and highly talented. Plays are now being considered, and when a selection has been made and the cast of characters secured, the date of the event will be announced.

Masquerade Ball—

All the October social events worth while, and bidding for the favor of Sonoma Valley residents, are not to transpire in town, however—not by long odds. Glen Ellen's energetic social leaders are arranging programs and dates for social functions in that progressive city.

The most important affair to be noted is a Masquerade Ball, which is in course of arrangement by the Glen Ellen's Woman's Improvement Club, to take place at Chauvet Hall, on the night of October 17th.

Valuable prizes are to be presented to the gentleman and lady wearing the handsomest costumes, and also to the best sustained characters.

Such good times are always enjoyed at Glen Ellen that Sonoma lovers of the dance look forward with pleasant anticipation to parties in our hospitable northern neighbor, and so many fair hands will be busily at work fashioning fetching and prize-winning costumes.

Local Elks Planning Ball—

An event on the tapis, which it is to be hoped will become an actual reality, is a grand ball, to be given by the local members of the fraternity of Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. Memories of the ball given by the Elks some months ago, still linger pleasantly, as the function was the most brilliant and successful given in this city in years, and all who were present on that occasion are soliciting another event of like nature.

The gentlemen are to hold a meeting in the near future, and appoint committees to carry out the elaborate scheme of decoration and other arrangements which are to contribute to an event, which, it is expected, will eclipse the first social undertaking.

Dr. W. B. Hays, the "live wire" of the "Best People on Earth," is already enthusiastically at work designing decorations for the big dance hall. Under his artistic management the hall was transformed into a place of beauty and harmonious effects on the previous occasion, and, therefore, it is but natural that we expect a veritable glimpse of fairyland at this October ball.

Picnic at Oak Grove—

The picnic to be given by the Native Sons' Drum Corps at Oak Grove, advertised to take place tomorrow, has been redated for Sunday of next week, Sept. 27th.

This was decided upon at a meeting of the Drum Corps held Tuesday night, Manager Fred Hansen and his "bunch" of drummers deciding that a longer period of advertising would insure increased attendance.

Therefore, Oak Grove will be in readiness for the reception and entertaining of the picnickers on the date named, and arrangements are being rapidly perfected for the holding of "one big time."

The committees in charge are as follows:

Printing—Leonard Thomas, Albert Warriner and Harry Quartaroli.

Gate—Fred and Will Helberg, and Louis Picetti.

Wheel of Eortune—Ed Peterson and George Goess.

Financial—Fred Hansen, James Modini and Jos. Keiser.

With the various committee-men, the other members of the Drum Corps are uniting efforts to make this, their second grand annual picnic, a greater success if possible than the first effort.

Dancing Party To Be Given—

Another event under consideration is a dancing party at which the younger set of the masculine sex will officiate as hosts, and their guests all the delightful girls—and their number is legion—of the Sonoma Valley.

The function will be in compliment to the bevy of charming girls who entertained at Union Hall, Friday night of last week, and a date will probably be named for the latter part of this month.

Last week's party, given by the young ladies, proved most pleasurable, with excellent music furnished by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Perkins, and the floor capably managed by Frank Knolle.

The suggestion has been made that the young people organize for the giving of these simple dancing parties during the winter, and the idea is an excellent one and would prove equally as pleasure-affording as the dancing school during the late winter and early spring, and which, by-the-way, is not to be resumed.

St. Barbara's Guild Meeting—

The members of St. Barbara's Guild were entertained by Mrs. Foster, at her pleasant suburban home, Tuesday afternoon. The hostess, who is one of the most active of the Guild workers, is a delightful hostess, and interspersed the routine of business with many pleasing attentions to her guests.

The matrons and maids of the Episcopal Church, like those of the Congregational, are very busy with their needles these days, fashioning dainty and practical articles for their annual bazaar, the date for which has not yet been set.

Something in the dramatic line, in which favorite talent will appear, is to be presented, and dancing will also be a feature. But of this, more anon.

Departs for New Jersey—

Mrs. Margaret S. Blake, who for a year past had visited at the home of her neice, Mrs. Hannah Appleton, took her departure for San Francisco, Tuesday morning, where she will visit until Sunday, Sept. 27th, when she starts on her home trip to Roselle, New Jersey, in the company of her grandson-in-law, Irving G. Cooley. This will have been the fourth journey across the continent in four years made by Mrs. Blake, despite the fact that she has reached the advanced age of eighty-three years. The gentle little woman has endeared herself to all who have come within her influence during her visits here, and she is wished a safe and pleasant journey home, with the expressed hope that in the not-far-distant future Sonoma friends will again have the pleasure of greeting Mrs. Blake.

A Tribute to Rev. Wood—

In the midst of the gay whirl of social life, ever and anon, laughter is hushed upon the lips and gladness vanishes from out the eyes when a message comes from near or afar that the Death Angel has summoned some one whom we know, respect and love.

The news of the passing of Rev. C. H. Wood, on Tuesday, brought profound sorrow to the hearts of a score of other residents aside from the members of his congregation, for to none in our midst was accorded a fuller measure of respect and affection than to the worthy man, whose span of life was cut short in its prime and at its most useful period.

I, too, would fain place upon the grave of the departed a token of remembrance, and sympathize most deeply with the devoted wife, who is, indeed, bereft.

Other Personal Mention—

Mrs. Walter Murphy of Alameda and Mrs. Frederick Sprague of San Francisco came up to Sononma, Wednesday, and spent the day with their father, Editor H. H. Granice. The host of girlhood friends of the ladies are very regretful that these visits to the city in which they were prime favorites are so brief and far-between. Dr. Sprague, by-the-bye, did not sail on the Corea for China, altering his plans and remaining in San Francisco to continue the practice of his profession.

Popular Ray Button was cordially greeted by many friends at the party on Friday night of last week. It had been generally thought that his unfortunate and painful accident of a fortnight ago would prevent his attending, and there was genuine pleasure manifested among the gentler sex when he appeared, as Mr. Button is an exceptionally fine dancer and very much liked.

Mrs. Pauline McMullin has been enjoying the week, visiting with relatives in San Francisco, and the popular establishment in which she assists noted a decrease of sales during her absence—a not at all surprising fact to Mrs. McMullin's host of friends.

Miss Alice Soderberg and Miss Edna Cooper bade farewell to home folk and friends this week, to take up the duties each has chosen as her vocation. Miss Soderberg has entered the San Jose Normal, and Miss Cooper has resumed school teaching in Rincon Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Stonier, Mesdames M. Akers, Clements, W. J. Clements were prominent members of the Methodist-Episcopal Church in attendance at the funeral of their pastor, Rev. C. H. Wood, in Oakland, Thursday.

Ralph Hotz, accompanied by the Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff, motored to Napa, Monday, to bring home his mother, Mrs. G. H. Hotz, who had visited over Sunday with relatives.

Miss Katharine Kinsella came up from her home in San Rafael, Thursday morning, and will visit at the home of her brother, J. A. Kinsella, until tomorrow,

Miss Antoinette Froment enjoyed the week-end with relatives in the Bay City.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The boys of the Agricultural Club are beginning to can tomatoes now, and people that want a first-class article had better put their orders in early.

A few of the students are taking little side vacations to the State Fair and other places. Paul Thomson is visiting in Trinity County, and Alita Franquelin and Ray Gottenberg are visiting at the State Fair.

There are rumors of a baseball game between Sonoma and Santa Rosa High scheduled for the near future. Let us hope that these rumors are not unfounded, and that the boys will send up a winning team.

The work in the various departments is progressing nicely at the present time. The chemistry class wish to acknowledge the donation of one bottle of siphon water for experimental purposes from Mr. Froment.

The High School is co-operating with the Chamber of Commerce and the Woman's Club for the purpose of raising funds to defray the expenses of the winner of the Tomato Growing Contest on his trip to Washington, D. C. A movement is on foot to give a moving picture show and dance to raise the necessary funds. The date and full particulars will be given later.

Men are careless and they know it. Women when they are put in a man's place act like a man. Sex has no effect on the truth. "Cutting off his own nose"—did you ever hear that saying? It is not a nice figure, but it points to a certain kind of act common at the county seat. In Sonoma we are too intelligent to do it. We considerately refrain, for we ask, what good is nose in the hand? In Sonoma, when we take a journey into a strange country, we seek information, but we rush into the future with our nose in our hand to disguise facts. That a thing exists is nothing if you can keep it out of the nose. There are important truths we keep out of our mind, but they exist. You will never lose your heavenly reward because of what you do. It is what you don do that condemns. Next Sunday morning, the didactic portion of the morning service will refer to a man who eats his own flesh.

Everyone who will enter the contest for the quarter of a golden eagle, to be given to the best reciter of the prologue to Tennyson's "In Memoriam," must hand me their names by Sept. 21.

The Sunday Evening Service will be at 8 o'clock.

There is a very prevalent sin in our midst. Some time the active sinning is done by the young people, but in this case old and young, male and female are guilty. If any one is not guilty the pastor of this church will make a public apology to them, and in other ways make compensation.

SONOMA LOSES BALL GAME

Sonoma Plays St. Helena in Return Game. Defeated by Professional Skill.

Sonoma lost last Sunday's ball game to St. Helena by the score of 8 to 5.

The visitors came over with a strong line-up, which included the hired services of three professional ball players of San Francisco.

Yet, notwithstanding the augmented strength of the opposing team, Sonoma played a good game, and were it not for the errors made by the home lads, there would have been a different story to tell when final results were announced.

DIAMOND DUST.

Conway, who pitched for St. Helena, was a natural batter. In truth, it was in a great measure to his batting that the defeat of the home nine may be attributed.

Honkus Anselmi got two safe hits—one of them going for a home run. Sure enough, Honk has found his old batting eye.

Captain Ralph Evans connected with one of Conway's shoots, and straightened it out into a home run.

Lefty Helberg pitched a splendid game for Sonoma. Lefty had almost perfect control of the ball, striking out ten men and walking but one. If ever a pitcher deserved to win, Lefty did, and he also got a three-base hit.

The visitor's shortstop played a brilliant game, grabbing everything that came within shooting distance of him.

The home lads had an off day in the field, making many errors. It would be a good idea for Manager Modini to have a pot of glue on hand for next Sunday's game.

Masson, who played with the San Francisco Seals, at one time, was an easy victim for Helberg's curves.

George Block caught a good game for Sonoma. George's pegging to the bases was a feature—not a man stealing.

Dutch Andrieux made a great running catch of a fly-ball in back of second base.

The biggest crowd that ever saw a ball game on the home diamond was present last Sunday.

Manager Jim Modini has arranged a game with the Santa Rosa Federals for next Sunday, Sept. 20th. Game starts 2:15 p. m. See the posters.

TRUSTEES RAISE TAX RATE

The Board of City Trustees met in special session at the City Hall, Monday night.

All the members of the Board were present, with President Von Hacht in the chair.

The object of the meeting was to fix the rate of taxation for the municipality, and an animated discussion was held by the City Solons as to the necessity of increasing the tax rate.

A motion to this effect was finally passed by unanimous vote, the rate being increased from $1.25 to $1.45 as follows: Bond and interest, $.35; for Library, $.10; for general fund, $1.00; total, $1.45.

This is the highest tax rate levied by the city since it was incorporated in 1883

The assessment rolls of the city record valuations to the amount of $598,894.

The matter of apportioning the municipal income to the various funds was the problem next taken up by the Trustees, and although the Board is made up of men who are supposed to be pretty good mathematicians, yet despite the fact, the gentleman of the Board were unable to balance accounts to their satisfaction, and the requirements of the city, according to their judgment.

A conclusion could not be arrived at in the segregation of fund apportionments, and the matter was continued until the next meeting.

The holding of a Peace Service or Conference, on Sunday, October 4th, in conformity with the wish of President Wilson, was discussed and met with the approval of the Board. President Von Hacht was appointed to confer with all of the local clergy and request that each assist at the Peace Service, on the night of Sunday, Oct. 4th.

No further business appearing, the Board adjourned.

Hart for the Congress and a Reunited Republican Party

HON. EDWARD H. HART, Republican nominee for Congressman from the First District, passed through here on his automobile campaign and as scheduled held an open air meeting last Saturday.

Mr. Hart makes no claims to oratory, and yet he speaks so clearly and his arguments are put so lucidly that he carries conviction and makes probably more votes for himself by his quiet, unassuming manner than he would if he were more given to oratorical flourishes.

In addressing himself to the voters, Mr. Hart insists upon the importance of party organization. Nothing had ever been accomplished, or would be accomplished by individuals working alone; it was team work that counted. Men must unite to accomplish whatever of good they hoped to achieve. The whole history of this country and of every other country showed that what has been done for the betterment of mankind has been done through united effort, team work, and party organization.

Though the present Congressman from this district (Mr. Kent) to deprecate party, he had tried by the organization of "writing-in-clubs" to secure every party nomination though he had been true to none. He was first elected as a Republican, yet not once during his first term did he vote with that party on a single issue. A careful search of the Congressional Record had failed to disclose any such vote, and if any of his friends could point to any such vote they were invited to arise, wherever Mr. Hart has spoken in the district, and name it. No one has yet done so. The second time the Congressman was elected as a Progressive and yet had openly refused to affiliate with the Progressives and had supported them no better than the Republicans, yet this year, by a great expenditure of money and effort, he had tried to secure both the Republican and Progressive nomination, and also the Democratic, and having failed he was now trying to get the courts to give him what he had lost at the polls.

Discussing the issues of the Congressional campaign, Mr. Hart has said "that there were four great issues in this campaign, viz.: the tariff, as it had effected the prices of living; the injury to American interests; the foreign policy of the administration and the free toll repeal of the Panama Canal Act."

When the Democrats had passed the Tariff Bill, they had claimed that they were revising the tariff downward, and that the change would result in the reduction in the cost of living, yet living had never been higher in the United States than it was last July, and figures for July seventeenth last, which are given by Mr. Hart in his speeches, prove the assertion. At the same time our imports are rapidly increasing, and our exports are rapidly decreasing, and even had there been no European war, it would have been necessary to make up the deficit caused by the new tariff law from some other system of taxation.

But this was not the only result of the new tariff: it had paralyzed many different lines of business. Two of the largest sugar factories in this State were sufferers. At Hamilton, the factory was closed, the windows boarded up and many employees thrown out of work. At Meridian, the iron for one of the largest sugar factories in the world was lying on the ground, as under the new tariff it was impossible to produce sugar profitably.

Usually, there are some fifty thousand idle freight cars distributed around the country, but on July 1st, 1912, there were two hundred and twenty thousand, eight hundred and seventy-five, an increase of two hundred and twelve per cent over two years ago.

But that was not all. The war had shown us the evil of depending upon other nations. Sugar was going up in price by leaps and bounds since the war had closed the sugar exportations of Europe, and now was nearly twice what it was before, and was going still higher. If we produced our own sugar we would have been independent of the European market, and would not have been bled in that way. Yet the Congressman from this district declares free trade the ideal condition for California and the United States, and says that any business that cannot stand without protection should be allowed to die.

In the matter of the foreign policy, Mr. Hart declares the treaty with Columbia, by which we are to pay her fifty million dollars was humiliating, and he pointed out the weak policy of the Wilson administration along other lines, including the project of giving up the Philippine Islands.

In discussing the free tol repeal, Mr. Hart asserts that from all time this country had reserved to itself its coastwise trade. When then it declared that coast vessels should pass through the Canal free, it was simply asserting a right which England had herself admitted. The repeal of the law was done to please foreign government. The result of the repeal will be to add largely to the cost of products passing through the Canal.

Easy Jim: Of course, I do not like to tell you my troubles, but Marshal Forni is so busy at present, and as Marshal Albertson of Sonoma has troubles of his own, I do not like to impose on his good nature. You are theonly one in sight that is "Easy," so here goes:

The Five O'clock Tea Club held its semi-monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, with all members present.

Ethel Eastlake stated she was happy to inform her sister members that the primary election went their way as far as county nominees were concerned. and all their promises were fulfilled. And she told the truth, sure.

Fannie Ferndale said she attended the ball game in Sonoma, Sunday of last week, and was surprised to see the Sonoma nine beat the Paradise Sodas. She likes Paradise Sodas So do I, but I think that they ought to change their name to "Paradise Lost," for whenever "Starlight" Jim Modini manages a game, your bets are safe, as a rule, as there's generally a good reason when the Sonoma nine goes down to defeat.

Fannie Ferndale took "Starlight Jim" to task for losing the game, Sunday last, asking him the reason why Jimmie only gave her an inscrutable smile and said it was his fault. "Too much Vallejo, girlie; too much Vallejo."

Believe, yours truly,
MINNIE MADDEN.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto and family attended the State Fair at Sacramento on Wednesday last.

Mrs. A. A Rice and daughter, Miss Alta, have returned home after several days' visit to the Bay City.

Alois Andereggen, one of our popular citizens was initiated in the Order of Red Men in Sonoma, last Saturday evening. Al be "a good Injun."

Edmund Baher, of San Francisco, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Benhald Schiempp, at their residence on the Hyde tract, several days this week.

Theodor Reibli, a popular citizen of Penn's Grove, and formerly a well-known resident of Sonoma Valley, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Enrico Forni for several days, returning home Tuesday.

John Batto, the pioneer business man of Vineburg, and founder of the firm of John Batto & Sons Inc., left on Tuesday last, on a visit to the bay cities, where he will be the guest of friends and relatives for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. August Figone and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs John Batto, the week-end. Mr Figone is a rising young business man of the metropolis, and proprietor of the Vineburg Wine Vaults, on Filbert street.

Albert Groskopf, one of Sonoma Valley's most popular delivery men, with John Batto & Sons, started on his annual vacation, Thursday last. Enjoy yourself, Al, and don't forget to come back, for "little Dew Drop" will miss you when you're gone.

Norman Heggie of Sonoma, Mr and Mrs. Fred Batto and family, accompanied by Misses Adele Andrieux and Rose Basaglia spent Sunday last on an excursion to Mount Tamalpais and Muir Woods. All speak highly of the grand scenery in that vicinity, and of the pleasant trip they enjoyed.

Walter Bundschu, superintendent of the Gundlach-Bundschu Wine Company, and his able foreman Phillip Bill, Sr., are certainly busy men at the present time filling and shipping large orders received from all parts of the United States for the Rhine Farm Wines. Extra men and teams have been required this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lehrke are spending this week in the metropolis, where they will combine business with pleasure. Mr. Lehrke has at present a large number of workmen engaged in improving his property interests in this vicinity. They are now renovating and enlarging the residence on the Erickson ranch at Vineburg.

Emil McCurdy, head bookkeeper and cashier of the California Baking Company, of San Francisco, accompanied by his cousin, Thomas McCurdy, are guests at the New Vineburg Inn. Mr. McCurdy has many friends in Sonoma Valley, where he has enjoyed his summer outing for many years. He still has his sweet voice with him when he is called on to sing, which is very often.

Henry Forni is now putting the hard wood floors in the New Opera House. They are made out of cement and will be covered with roofing paper to keep out the heat The building will be 40x120 feet, and will be finished the first of the [illegible]th. Just what month is not yet known. Jim Small is writing a new playlet for the opening night, which is entitled "The Tight Man."

Miss Margaret Carabal, of Agnews, Santa Clara County, returned to her home on Tuesday last, after being the guest of her cousins, Mrs. Fred Batto and Miss Adele Andrieux, of North Vineburg, and Mrs. Charles McDevitt, of Sonoma, for a month. This charming young lady was delighted with her visit, and made many warm friends during her stay, all of whom will welcome her should she visit us again.

EASY JIM.

LOCAL NEWS OF SONOMA AND IMMEDIATE VICINITY

B. F. Keecher, a prominent farmer of this valley, attended the State Fair in Sacramento several days this week, and reports the exhibit as very fine and his trip a round of pleasant sight-seeing.

During her sojourn in Sonoma, Mrs. R. G. Guernesey, of Ross, who is campaigning throughout the district with his wife in the interest of Edward H. Hart, Republican nominee for Congress, was entertained by Mrs. Ernest Campbell. The ladies are old-time friends.

Mrs. Ada Pauli and son, Roy, have let the contract for the construction of a six-room structure on the Pauli lot on Napa street, adjoining the new Expositor office. The building is to have an office front and will contain six rooms, in one of which Mrs. Pauli will conduct the business of the Western Union Telegraph Company. Work on the foundation has been commenced, and the building will be pushed rapidly forward to completion by Contractor A. E. Warrener, who has this splendid improvement in hand.

The semi-annual banquet of the Moose Social Club, of which Paul Robin is the popular president, was enjoyed Monday evening last, at the Palace Hotel. The feast followed the reception of two new members into the order, and was partaken of by over fifty members of the fraternity, among whom was a large delegation of visiting Santa Rosa Moose. The spread was certainly sumptuous, Mine Host and Mrs. Gus Gorsky sparing neither effort or expense in the arrangement and service of the banquet.

Wednesday, in Santa Rosa, a quiet wedding was celebrated, in which Miss Veda Suttenfield, of Eldridge, and Harry Davis, of San Rafael, were the principals. The bride is the daughter of W. Suttenfield, a well known attache of the State Hospital at Eldridge, and the groom is the leader of the orchestra at Fetters' Springs. The newly-wedded twain were tendered a reception by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fetters, at their beautiful resort, when the young people were showered with congratulations, and a royal good time was had. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are wished a happy and prosperous union by their many friends.

L. Rouquie, one of the valley's most prominent and highly respected pioneers, had a very narrow escape from serious injury, when he was struck with a motorcycle, while walking in the vicinity of his home at Vineburg, Wednesday evening. Mr. Rouquie did not hear the machine coming behind him, and he undoubtedly was not seen by the rider until too late to bring the cycle to a stop, and the gentleman was struck and knocked down. Dr. Hays, who was summoned to attend the injured man, found that Mr. Rouquie had been severely bruised about the head and body, but had sustained no broken bones. A host of friends are congratulating Mr. Rouquie on his fortunate escape.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dresel and son, Carl, returned home Friday of last week from a four weeks' trip through Shasta County, where Mrs. Dresel visited with friends near Redding, while the gentlemen spent the weeks hunting, and succeeded in getting the limit. Mr. Dresel reports deer as very plentiful, despite the fact that many perished from hunger last winter, in one spot alone his party coming across seventeen carcasses. The growth of brush is extremely dense and several feet high, which is a great obstacle to hunters, hiding game from view. Mr. Dresel reports good and cheap pasturage for stock, and says cattle are numerous and in excellent condition.

ANOTHER PROOF OF BRAVERY

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan had his courage and efficiency as an officer put to the supreme test, last Saturday night, and that he escaped serious injury is beyond a doubt due to that mysterious dispensation of Providence which has ever been the only protecting shield to which the redoubtable officer has had recourse.

It is another case of an encounter with an armed man, who was fearlessly faced, overcome and arrested by the daring officer who knows not the meaning of the word fear.

Last week, Henry Leinhard, employed as a milker in the dairy department of the State Hospital, at Eldridge, was discharged by the foreman, W. Farnsworth. Leinhardt left the premises, armed himself and returning threatened Mr. Farnsworth, who sent for Officer Ryan. Leinhard locked himself in a room, with the avowed intention of shooting the officer if arrest was attempted.

The threat didn't phase Ryan, however, who forced his way into the room, and had a desperate encounter with Leinhard before he succeeded in wrenching the weapon away and handcuffing his prisoner. Ryan's hands were badly cut as a result of the struggle.

Leinhard appeared before Judge Campbell, Tuesday afternoon, and on his pleading guilty, the charge of assault with a deadly weapon was reduced to simple assault, and he was sentenced to six months in the county jail.

DEATH SUMMONS REV. WOOD.

Rev. C. H. Wood passed away at the St. Francis Hospital, Tuesday afternoon, and although not unexpected, yet the announcement of his death was a shock to the community, with which he had been prominently identified as pastor of the Methodist-Episcopal Church for the past three years.

Rev. Wood was a native of Maryland and aged fifty-four years. He had been in California seventeen years, although during that time he had visited his home State.

In his departure from earth, the world has lost another earnest and zealous worker in the cause of Christianity, and the community a loyal and worthy citizen. Mr. Wood was a man of broad, expansive views, and brought to bear in his daily intercourse with humankind the principles of charity and brotherly love which are ever the precepts and example of the true-living Christian. He won the respect of all who met him and the friendship of all who knew him well.

A devoted wife, to whom he was most tenderly attached, two brothers and a host of sincere friends mourn the demise of the beloved clergyman.

The funeral services were held, Thursday, from the First Methodist Church of Oakland, in which city the remains were laid to rest.

REPUBLICAN LADIES FORM HART CLUB

Thursday afternoon, in Union Hall, a large number of the Republican ladies of this valley assembled in response to invitations sent out to meet Mrs. Hart, who is doing very effective work in the district in the interest of her husband, Edward H. Hart, Republican nominee for Congress, by organizing clubs among the women voters. Mrs. Hart is accompanied by Mrs. Harry Martin of San Rafael, and Mrs. R. G. Guernesey of Ross, both of whom addressed the assemblage. Mrs. Hart presented a statement of facts as to what Kent represents, and convinced her hearers that Kent does not stand for the best interests of California, and is opposed to one of her greatest—the viticultural industry.

This is one of the strongest arguments against Mr. Kent and has already resulted in scores of Democrats throughout the district, who realizing that the Congressional fight is, beyond argument, between Mr. Hart and Mr. Kent, will support the former in an endeavor to beat the latter, whose erratic statements and actions have proven him to be "neither fish, flesh nor good red herring," and not fit to represent the greatest State in the Union in Congress.

Leading Democratic women of the Sonoma Valley will affiliate with the club, whose purpose is to strengthen the cause of Edward H. Hart and help elect him.

Mrs. J. A. Kinsella was chosen preideut of the organization, and Mrs. Ernest Campbell secretary. The following ladies were elected vice-presidents: Mesdames H. J. Wicker, A. D. Lowell, T. A. Cheney, C. M. Johnson and Frank Koenig. Mrs. Carrie Poppe was elected the Glen Ellen representative of the Club.

Mrs. Thos. Monahan returned to her home in San Francisco, today, after a week spent in Sonoma, during which time she enjoyed a visit from her daughter, Miss Florence Aubrey.
